

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE FOR SUBMITTING MATERIAL TO THE TEC CENTER AT ERIKSON INSTITUTE WEBSITE

The mission of TEC Center at Erikson Institute is to empower early childhood educators to make informed decisions about the appropriate use of technology with children from birth to age 8. Through carefully selected resources and real-world examples, the Center strengthens educators' digital literacy and their ability to intentionally select, use, integrate, and evaluate technology in the classroom and other early childhood settings. In pursuit of this mission, TEC Center has created this online center for the sharing of information and materials regarding integration of technology into early childhood programs.

Teachers, professionals, and students are invited to submit information to this site. Posted information may include pictures, blog posts, reflections, and tech integrated lesson plans. Information posted on this site is intended freely to be shared with others within the field, who may not only post their own submissions but may also use, update, and revise information posted by other registered users to the site.

The following Terms and Conditions of Use govern all posting, uploading, and usage regarding this site. Before you are permitted to submit for posting or use posted materials on this website, you must first register, which involves reading and agreeing to the Terms and Conditions of Use set forth below.
